Internship Policy

As per All India Council for Technical Education, Internships is Mandatory and is important and integral part of the Post-Graduate Programmes, where students intern with a chosen organization for 8 weeks after their second and third semesters for Internship. The internship programme helps a student gain first-hand experience in a particular industry and gain through practical experience, a sound appreciation and understanding of the theoretical principles learnt in the first year of their Post-Graduate Programme. It also helps them in being more receptive to market needs, and in deciding their area of specialization in the second year. In Technical Institutions, Universities imparting technical education the following are the members of Internship committee at JDBIMS, SNDT Women's University, Juhu Road, Mumbai – 400 049.
